

Atty. Jannet Cruz- Regalado is the Vice President for Legal of Pilipinas Shell Petroleum Corporation and is concurrently Royal Dutch Shell's Managing Counsel for Global Litigation Asia Pacific covering the Philippines, Malaysia, Singapore, Pakistan, India, China, Australia, New Zealand, Korea, Japan, Indonesia, Brunei and the Pacific Islands . She is responsible for managing and supervising a sizeable portfolio of litigation and arbitration in these jurisdictions involving commercial, civil, criminal, tort, environmental & employment matters and deals with a big network of Shell - accredited global law firms. Prior to joining Shell, she was corporate secretary of First Lepanto Corporation and was a litigation counsel at the Carpio, Villaraza and Cruz Law Firm. She graduated with high honors with degrees in Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Bachelor of Laws from the University of the Philippines (U.P.). During her stint at the University, Jannet was a student leader, academic honor society member and was very active in intra-university debates and moot court competitions. She is also a faculty member of both the University of the Philippines and the Lyceum College of Law and is active in several legal and professional organizations.