

Sok-Theng Cheng, Legal Counsel, SE Asia, Morgan Stanley

Sok heads the legal function in Morgan Stanley, Singapore. She has general legal responsibility for Morgan Stanley's businesses in South East Asia including in capital markets, mergers & acquisitions advisory, equity and fixed income sales and trading, commodities and private wealth management. Sok read Law at Cambridge University and was in private practice in London for ten years, specializing in Corporate Finance before joining Morgan Stanley in London in 2006 and relocating to Singapore in 2008. She is admitted as a solicitor in England & Wales, Hong Kong and Singapore.