

CURRICULUM VITAE
MS TEH HWEE HWEE

Ms Teh Hwee Hwee holds concurrent appointments as District Judge, Divisional Registrar of the Court of Appeal and Divisional Registrar of the Singapore International Commercial Court (“SICC”).

Ms Teh has a special interest in dispute resolution. She is a member of the core team that worked on the establishment of the SICC, and continues to play a key role in its development as a commercial court of choice for businesses in the region. She also served as the first Executive Director of the Singapore Mediation Centre and was involved in the formation of the Asian Mediation Association that was set up to provide a collaborative platform for the building of conflict management capabilities for fast growing Asian economies.

She has co-authored several books, including Laurence Boule and Teh Hwee Hwee, Mediation – Principles, Process and Practice (Butterworths Asia, 2000); Joel Lee and Teh Hwee Hwee (eds), An Asian Perspective on Mediation (Academy Publishing, 2009); and Vinodh Coomaraswamy SC, Stanley Lai SC, Adrian Tan, Teh Hwee Hwee and Anand Nalachandran, A Civil Practice – Good Counsel for Learned Friends (Academy Publishing, 2011).

Ms Teh received her Bachelor of Laws degree at the National University of Singapore and her Master of Laws degree at Harvard Law School. She has been admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore and an Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law of the State Bar of New York. She was conferred the Public Administration Medal in 2012.
